Hello. If Bayliner can't provide it, then you will have a hard time finding one. You might try eBay - sometimes manuals are listed, but it's pretty much hit or miss. You could also try other Bayliner owners at www.baylinerownersclub.org - they operate a message forum where you could request a copy from another owner. You can get a manual on the engine itself either from Volvo Penta or a Seloc manual, which are available from many sources online in both paper and electronic formats.
