The budget was low. The actors were not the top of the heap, yet Night of the Living Dead is a very effective horror film. It was the film that no doubt set the standard for horror films of today. The whole idea of freshly dead corpses returning from the grave to feed on the living makes my hair stand up, even without the movie. I find myself comparing this film with 1999's The Blair Witch Project. They are similar, not in what they are about, but in how they were made. Both films took very little ...
